Fireman's Hall Slated For Extreme Makeover!

On Saturday, April 30, 2005, Rebuilding Together of the Peninsula will organize a refurbishing of the old Fireman's Hall, located at 618 The Avenue. Over the years, the Fireman's Hall, which is also home to the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, has served the needs of low-income, senior and minority groups, offering an "affordable" means to host large family gatherings and special events.

You can be a part of this momentous occasion by being one of the 50 volunteers needed on Rebuilding Together Day. For more information, or to volunteer, please call the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce at 650-588-0180.

President's Message

We are well on our way to more successful events this year. We thank you all for your suggestions and participation in the past. Together we can continue to provide a rewarding environment for our businesses through networking events, meetings, speakers, and community involvement. Again, we encourage our members and members to be to join us in future promotions and networking events.

As a fellow business person, I understand the value of referrals, marketing, and providing exceptional service. At the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, we wish to encourage and promote these values to you and everyone in business.

We hope to hear more suggestions and feedback from you about ways that the Chamber can help our businesses thrive in our community. We look forward to your participation!

Sincerely,

Karin Cunningham

Business Profile

John Leland Allstate Insurance

1150 Bayhill Drive, suite 320
San Bruno
(650) 589-5444
johnleland@allstate.com.

John Leland has been in the insurance business for about 38 years and when he needed more office space in August 2003, he moved his business (John Leland LLC, Allstate) to San Bruno.

Now located in the Lake Amir Office Park, John said he has twice the space he used to, but for the same price.

He and his colleagues offer a wide range of insurance and financial services from auto, fire and long-term care insurance to mutual funds and annuities.

John's business philosophy is to "try and give the best possible service you can". He recognizes there are many other insurance companies out there and that you have to offer thorough coverage and try to make the process as convenient as possible so your clients will want to come back to you. And always remember: the right product for the right person.

He said joining the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce was important because its good business to be part of the community and joining the Chamber is one way to keep your name out there. - "And people want to buy from someone they like and trust," he said.

While he says the bulk of his work is done on the phone, he also calls on his clients at their offices or homes and they occasionally drop by his office, where he manages six to seven employees.

Away from work, John is a Little League umpire. He loves baseball season and has a great time playing with the kids. He says he fits right in since he is still a child at heart.

For your insurance and financial services needs, John can be reached at (650) 589-5444 or emailed at johnleland@allstate.com.
